Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That if a certain school marm's dresses continue to grow shorter, they'll soon be nothing but girdles.

—That the preacher who takes a little nap at a brother's house in his absence is taking a mighty risk.

—That if women were firemen all the men in town would go to every fire to see them handle the "hose." Yes, indeed!

—That the man who waits for an opportunity never gets there as quick as the man who makes an opportunity.

—That there is no place like home, but it usually takes a married man ten years to find it out. Well, not the Kansas City married men, Sammy!

—That a well known Colored woman's "bank" bursted the other day and caused much weeping and wailing as well as the loss of fifty dollars. It was in her stocking. We now warn the women to beware of little thread banks. If you have no other place to keep your money, bring it to Betty and Sam.

—That a well known woman was heard to say: "I just can't associate with anyone but professional people." Well, she doesn't have time, because Betty and Sam saw her five days in the week "busting suds" in white folks' yards.

—That cuspidors should be put in the "Y" for those Negroes who persist in disgustingly expectorating up on the roof of the building adjoining it on the south (which must be observed by all persons going to the Cafeteria), or they should be compelled to wear muzzles the whole time they are within the building. Amen, children, amen.

—That a certain woman advised all her neighbors to give their husbands "love powder" if they felt that they were losing some of their affection, and one little newly-wed gave her husband so much that he discovered it in his food. He at once got busy to "clean house." The advistor now says that it works backward when too much is given.

—That a dainty little thing who has been telling all her girl chums that what a royal reception she was going to give her intended when he arrived home from France received a letter from New York the other day saying that he had been discharged and had immediately sailed for France where he had married a charming French girl a few months ago. That was too bad, wasn't it?

—Call West 380.

THE AMERICAN WOODMEN DELIVER THE GOODS.

The American Woodmen paid off a claim before the body was deposited. Neighbor George Parks joined the American Woodmen August, 1918, and died February 25, 1919; was an employe of the St. Louis Smelting Company, Collinsville, Ill. He carried a policy with the American Woodmen and his endowment was paid to his mother, February 27. You can see by this the advisability of paying up your dues so that if anything happens your beneficiaries will receive their endowment at once.

Recently Mr. E. Barbour was employed by Mr. W. A. Campbell, Supervisor of the American Woodmen as a deputy on salary, and he is making good. Mr. Barbour is right on Peasut N. S. Adkins' heels. He is one of the best insurance agents ever in the employ of this company. Mr. Adkins is on higher ground of Woodcraft. Mr. Campbell and his assistants are offering $50 in gold to the person or Church that will get fifty members by the 29th of April.

Neighbor J. W. Long, Commander

MR. W. A. CAMPBELL,

Supervising Deputy American Woodmen.

of Camp No. 5, with the Vice Commander, T. A. Jones, and the Secretary, Neighbor Maude Jefferson, and other official members, are doing great work in Woodcraft in Kansas City. The members are writing up more members for the American Woodmen than the salaried Deputies.

Our monthly financial report pushed $500, and by 1920 we will be $1,000. Why? Mr. W. A. Campbell and his assistants rejoice in paying their claims. That's what the people like. The American Woodmen feel honored to have Mrs. Ida M. Beck a member of this grand old insurance. They will obligate her the first Tuesday in March. All members that want to take part in the 19th Anniversary on the 29th of April, come to the hall Tuesday night, March 4, and let us make that one of the greatest events in the history of woodcraft.

Supervising Deputy.
